

His Tomb Is Empty

V1

In Jerusalem there is a hollow grave
Some believe it was the place our Lord was laid
While others have declared our lord was never there
But here I stand before you with the truth
This One who lives inside is living proof

Ch

His tomb is empty
Out of the night there arose the Day
Savior, Redeemer to me the Truth, the Light, the Way
I know its empty, the hands of death have lost their pull
I know his tomb is empty 'cause my heart is full

V2

If there's any question in your search to find
It's not in some subtle clue He's left behind
You won't see it in the shroud His word declares it loud
Though the change in me makes little sense
My joy is overwhelming evidence

Ch

His tomb is empty
Out of the night there arose the Day
Savior, Redeemer to me the Truth, the Light, the Way
I know its empty, the hands of death have lost their pull
I know his tomb is empty 'cause my heart is full

Bridge

It was first a speck of Hope
But soon became a Beam
Then shining forth the brightest Light this world has ever seen
Shining forth the brightest Light this world has ever seen

Ch

His tomb is empty
Out of the night there arose the Day
Savior, Redeemer to me the Truth, the Light, the Way
I know its empty, the hands of death have lost their pull
I know his tomb is empty 'cause my heart is full

Ch

His tomb is empty

Out of the night there arose the Day

Savior, Redeemer to me the Truth, the Light, the Way

I know its empty, the hands of death have lost their pull

I know his tomb is empty 'cause my heart is full
